H. A. Tirrell at Y. M. C. A. Sunday Afternoon.

At 5.30 p. m. Sunday at the local Y. M. C. A. the third "got-together" for sailors and soldiers, and others who are interested will be held. Swahn's orchestra will furnish music, and popular patriotic and other songs will be used. A brief and practical address will be delivered by Principal II. A. Tirrell of the Norwich Free Academy. After the address the ladies of Park Congregational church will serve without cost a substantial lunch to all attending the "get-to-

DAVIS THEATRE

Four Shows Today, at 1.30, 3.15, 6 and 8.15-Big Feature Photoplay Bill, Headed by Charles Ray in His Own Home Town, Five-part Ince Pro-

The big feature at the Davis theatre today is Charles Ray, the famous Ince star, in his latest photoplay, His Own Home Town. The scenes are laid in a small city, which has been dominated for years by a political boss and a few henchmen, including a hypocritical minister of the gospel, the latter being the father of Jimmy Duncan, the character assumed by Charles Ray. This young man's soul revolts against their corrupt practices and he determines to rid the city of these malcontests in office. How he acthe love of a beautiful sirl, is told in a series of highly thrilling scenes. Other features on this bill are Pau-line Starke in Innocent Progress, a five-part Triangle story of a little country sirl who gets lost in the big city: Benjamin Chapin in the sev-enth chapter of the Son of Democracy entitled Down the River, and Current photoplay of the highest artistic merit and with a dramatic interest and heart appeal seldom seen in a motion picture. The story enunciates the truism that riches do not bring love to the lives of men whose mission in life is the acquisition of all the money in the world, and who, after gaining their ends, find themselves. ey in the world, and who, after gain-ing their ends, find themselves poor as Lazarus because love does not ex-ist in their sordid souls.

BREED THEATRE

AT THE AUDITORIUM

Broadway Revue's Last Performances

Peggy Carroll with her clever songs and dances were contributing factors and deserve special mention. Next week Ben Loring and his merry singing company will hold the boards. His previous engagement left a very fayorable impression with the Auditorium patrons. There will be some picture surprises, including Tom Mix in Western Blood, and the last episade of Vengeance and the Woan. Don't miss the smashing finish the last serial ever produced. Ben Loring, the singing Irish comedian, with his own tabloid andd vau-deville company of fourteen people will be the attraction at the Auditorium next week. This attraction comes here direct after a three weeks' run in Springfield, and which surely should please Norwich audiences. The company consists of all versatile ar-tists, among who are Madeline Bucklay, who is the possessor of a wonderful high soprano voice. Mr. Loring will present complete one hour performances, offering two shows daily the first play that will be offered is entitled A Trip to Happyland, which is said to be a sure cure for the blues, also it must be said that Ben will be here to please you with his original parodies.

> CATARRHAL DEAFNESS CANNOT BE CURED

Today—Four Shows, 1.30, 3, 6.15 and 8.30.

Today and tonight will be the farewell performances of the revue, terminating a successful four weeks' engagement which included eight different plays which greatly to their credit has be said to have been clean and entertaining. Nonsense Outdone, their last offering, has won additional laurels and without question, their best laxy's Cohen's maweup and personality is just one laugh producer. Ed. Connolly, who jumped into the partformerly played by Bill Jennigs at hardly a minute's notice, received his share of praise. His singing continues to be one of the treats of the entertainment. Billy Barnes with his original comedy and clever acting, and gances of catarrhal deafness that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Medicine. Circulars free, All druggists, 75c.

TO ARMS.

From Maine a wild coast to the Ten-nessee, from the America of paim and corn, From the Rio Grande to the Golden Oate, seet Battle-flags are Gate see! Battle hass are borne;
Yes, now we rise in our ancient might to answer Duty's call.
And some of us may 'see is through.'
and some of us may fall.
But better (ar the hard, say red with blood as deep as the see.
Than we prove faithless to our Love—our love of Liberty.

Then let Old Glory swing gloft, that symbols what we are.
Whose light shines bright as the brightest sou, and far as the farthost, start the farthost, start the farthost, start the farthost, start the farthost start start the farthost start start the farthost start start start the farthost start t

For me ore springs from a race of Kings who serve in earthly throne.

Tis ours to keep our birthright clean, and nord it still purbase.

So, wille War's muttered, thunders sound noroes the land and sea.

Rise in, O rise my brothers, for the Fight that is to be:

- Corson Miller. OVER THERE.

Disod! Who leved an only son.
Hear Thou the earnest-payer
Which mothers offer for their boys,
Par somewhere over there:
O watch and keep them every one
Who roam by sand or sea:
I know that some will never return
Let mine come back to me!
Yet should it be Tay whin Divine
That mine falls in the fray,
Help mr. O God! to make my plaint.
But aid me still to pray
For those who suffer crue! pain But aid me still to pray for those who suffer cruel pain
Or death for hearts that break.
Don Christ, The Son He suffered thus and sufferer for our adde.
Then make our poor hearts strong to hear The Cross to Olives height— ut linger not there's work to do For those still left to fight!
